The musical meeting between the musicians Antonio Figura, Massimiliano Rolff and Lucrezio de Seta seals an inspired and original musical creation. The common improvisational vision and the symbiotic dialogue free the three Italian musicians from the heavy burdens of tradition, projecting their music into a new and still unexplored dimension. The common compositional vision of the three, in search of the expression of their musical soul, returns hypnotic musical frescoes, often slowed down, in which the space designs the depth of the care of the sound, restoring to listening the true weight of every single intervention, in a common and close-knit balance of spontaneous shared creativity.

Figura, Rolff and de Seta are available for concerts and recitals, and their new, first and highly anticipated group album is soon to be published.

TRE S

ANTONIO FIGURA ●

Virtuoso, eclectic, lyrical and versatile, his music combines classical music, European jazz and African-American tradition with great sensitivity. The flexible and modern sound and rigorous scores allow him to create suggestive and changing atmospheres. Figura chisels a veiled twilight playing, at times hypnotic, tense and deeply narrative, beaded with some brilliant harmonic asperities.

MASSIMILIANO ROLFF

An authentic bassist, always with an eye for detail, in his musical journey he has consistently shown us that he knows how to build ever new musical worlds, branding each recording with an adventurous spirit and great respect for the group's musical vision. His sound is full of melody and experience, alternating climates closer to jazz tradition with the more adventurous ones of European modernity. Rolff is a visionary improviser where technique, elegance and research come together in a pleasant surprise.

LUCREZIO de SETA

An inimitable drummer in the national scene, de Seta demonstrates, at every opportunity, that he is an extraordinary drummer and composer with great instinct and no ego. His drumming is an enviable balance of tradition and modernity always at the service of the music. An attentive musician and always focused on quality, de Seta is equipped with an amazing technique that never takes over his lyricism and his constant search to broaden his musical vision.
